Picnic Updates and Info

The Church Picnic Committee is looking for volunteers to cook the cured hams donated by various donors. If you know how to cook these hams, please consider volunteering. We have four hams that need to be cooked and dropped off no later than Thursday, August 22. They may be dropped off at the church basement after 5pm or contact a committee member to make other arrangements. UPDATE: There is 1 ham left to be cooked.

This year's Homecoming Picnic quilt is called Jewel Box. The quilt top was made and donated to the St. Joseph Quilters by Betty Zeller, to be used for the church picnic. This queen sized quilt took approximately 224 hours to make and was completed on July 17, 2024. The quilt will be on display at Citizens Community Bank in Pilot Grove. As in years past, the 4:30 mass the day of the picnic will be held at Clear Creek.
