Food and Coat Drive

The student council will be hosting a food and coat drive beginning on November 11th going to November 22nd. The food drive will benefit the Food Bank of Central and Northeast Missouri. The coat drive will benefit the Harvest House in Boonville. Monetary donations will also be accepted for both the Food Bank and the Harvest House. For every dollar given to the Food Bank they are able to provide $21 in food. Items in high demand are; canned meat, vegetables, and fruit, box meals, cereal, peanut butter, bagged/boxed rice, beans, and pasta, and soups. The Student Council will deliver all items when they volunteer at the Food Bank.

Christmas Program

Although the Christmas program seems a long time away, it will be here before we know it! Mrs. Wirths and MaDonna have already begun working with the students. If your child takes any type of musical instrument lesson and would like to play a song before the program please let Mrs. Wirths know. We would love for their talent to be a part of the Christmas program!
