THE JUST MAN IS A LIGHT IN DARKNESS TO THE UPRIGHT.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells His disciples, "You are the salt of the earth... You are the light of the world." With these words, He reminds us that our faith is not meant to be hidden or kept private. We are called to bring flavor, goodness, and light into the world around us through our everyday actions.

Isaiah and the psalm echo this call, showing us that true worship of God is lived out through kindness, justice, and care for those in need. When we choose compassion, forgiveness, and generosity, we allow God's light to shine through us.

Jesus does not ask us to be perfect—He asks us to be present. Small acts of love, done with faith, have the power to transform hearts and communities. As we go forth this week, may we live in a way that helps others see the light of Christ shining in us.
